Iredell County's Carolina Thread Trail Master Planning Process Kicks Off with Community Survey and Public Workshops

Statesville, N.C. – Iredell County, along with its communities, Love Valley, Union Grove, Harmony, Mooresville, Troutman and Statesville, is launching an effort to develop a countywide master plan for the Carolina Thread Trail (The Thread).

The Thread is a network of trails, greenways, blueways and conservation corridors linking 15 counties in North and South Carolina. It offers a multitude of opportunities for biking, hiking, fishing, paddling and connecting with nature.

The Thread is made up of segments that are designed, built and owned by the counties and towns through which the trail network is woven. All Iredell residents are encouraged to participate in the planning process, as citizen participation is vital to the successful development of a final plan. The public is invited to participate through online and written surveys and through a series of public meetings.

A public survey (online and hard copy) will soon be available for citizen input. An interactive project website will also be available via a link on the County's website (www.co.iredell.nc.us). Beginning June 29, a series of public meetings will be held throughout the County to gather additional public input. The meetings will take place from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. on the following dates:

Tuesday, June 29th at the Iredell County Agricultural Resource Center
444 Bristol Drive in Statesville

Wednesday, July 14th at the Union Grove Community Center
1869 West Memorial Highway in Harmony

Thursday, July 15th at the Lowe's Family YMCA
170 Joe V. Knox Avenue in Mooresville

The purpose of the Greenway Master Plan is threefold: (1) identify the conceptual routes for The Thread through the county and its incorporated jurisdictions, (2) identify the broader trail network to which The Thread will connect and (3) develop an action plan for implementation. The goal at the conclusion of the process is to have a publically-adopted, countywide master plan.

A steering committee made up of staff and local volunteers leads the Iredell effort. Assisting is Alta Planning + Design, a nationally-recognized firm specializing in park and trail development. Also assisting is The Lawrence Group's Town Planning and Landscape Architecture Studio which specializes in park, trail and recreation development.

The Thread organization supports the County by providing catalytic funding to help design and build trails and assistance in attracting state and federal funding to the project. The Thread also provides communities with the educational and technical resources needed to build the regional trail system.
