KINGS MOUNTAIN — The cold breeze didn't keep anyone away Saturday at the Kings Mountain Gateway Trail.

Dozens of families came out to celebrate the trail's first anniversary with fun, food and festivities.

Girl Scout troops made crafts, including pine cone birdfeeders.

The American Revolutionary War Living History re enactors camped out Friday night and entertained those strolling along the trail Saturday morning. S'mores were made around a fire pit stationed near the trailhead.

The trail is a part of the Carolina Thread Trail — a regional network of greenways and trails that will reach 15 counties in North and South Carolina.
