Town Council Adopts Carolina Thread Trail Master Plan

Posted On: June 16, 2011

Indian Trail, NC, June 16, 2011- At their meeting on June 14 town council members adopted the Carolina Thread Trail Master Plan. The Carolina Thread Trail is a regional trail network that when completed will stretch across fifteen counties and reach over 2.3 million people.

Approximately nine miles of the Carolina Thread Trail will be located in Indian Trail connecting twenty-two subdivisions and village centers. The trail will help preserve open space, educate about nature and improve quality of life for residents.
